Chapter 5

One day before picking up
shooting star fragments

The day before the
meteor shower

Morning

It's a nice,
beautiful
morning!

Let's eat
together!

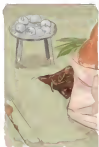

Oh, Vanilla.
I thought you'd
still be in bed.

Do you want
some herbal tea?

Sure.

Hmm.. These rocks
are wrapped in leaves.
Should we unwrap them?

I heard that
they can repeat
all magic.

Really? I wonder if it contains marble.

Who knows?

PUFF

What's all the racket around here this morning?

Lantern and...

Ho..!

Ah, thanks...

Ho Ho...

Hmm, but still why has the lantern class been practicing flying here since this morning?

They're probably practicing to find shooting star fragments for the meteor shower I heard it's tomorrow.

That so? But why here? They can practice at their own dorm.

...Right?

She wasn't listening.

!!!

Laaaannnterrrrr
classssss!

Everyone,
over here!

Sorry
to disturb,
but could you
help us out with our assignment after
your classes
finish?

What kind of assignment?

I want to use flowers to make something like a lantern. Can you help?

Instead of a Flame, the Flowers will light up when you Flick a switch.

I have one condition though...

Anyway, you can come to the lantern class in the afternoon if you want to learn about it.

Really?

I still have a condition that we can discuss at our next meeting.

Hurry up!

Okay!

If you're serious, then...

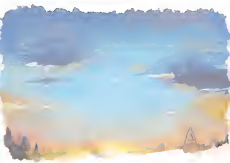

AH!

WAIT! WHAT'S YOUR NAME?!

The day before
the meteor shower

Afternoon

Before she comes back from the lantern
class, I should find out what her name is...

Now, where's the
class chart...?

Ah, Found It.

...Here she is.

So her name
is Key.

My grandmother
took that picture.

Today I've already come back from the
lantern class.

Q TAP

According to legend,
if we keep watering the
plants with this water
for a week, they'll start emitting light.

I see. So what was that
girl's condition?

She wanted to be Friends with me.

Oh... Good job.
